

Nurturing Jewish Values - from What We Now Know About Jewish Education

Written by Carol K. Ingall and Jeffrey S. Kress

This short chapter discusses methods on how to integrate teaching Jewish values into the curriculum: deciding on values, creating a class climate, including cognitive, affective, social, and behavioral aspects, and preparing and providing students with opportunities to act on the taught values.

PDF is attached.

Source